INDEX

This index is for Volume Twenty-Three of THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER - March, June, September and December 1969. The first figures indicate page numbers; the figure following the hyphen indicates the particular column on that page. Thus Axtell 391-3 indicates that Axtell will be found on page 391 (December issue), column three.

Since all names appear in alphabetic order in the Directory of Genealogists, pages 128 to 286 and the Genealogists' Exchange, pages 330 to 379, they do not appear in this index.

The various issues of Volume Twenty-Three (1969) contain the following pages: March, 1 to 64; June, 65 to 124; September, 125 to 384; and December, 385 to 448.

THE CYMRY OF '76 by Alexander Jones, reprint of the 1855 second edition, available from Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Pl., Baltimore, Md. 21202. Hard back, red cloth cover with gold lettering on the back bone, not indexed, 132 pages, $7.50.

The subtitle of this work is Welshmen and Their Descendants of the American Revolution, An address: With an Appendix, Containing Notes, Sketches and Nomenclature of the Cymbri.

This work is one of the few printed sources on the part played by the Cymbric or Welsh population here in America during the Revolutionary War and in the establishment of the United States. The major portion is devoted to notices of prominent persons of Welch ancestry and to the origin and etymology of Welsh names.

BRITISH FAMILY NAMES, by Rev. Henry Barber, reprint of the 1903 original, available from Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Md. 21202. Hard back, green cloth cover, with gold lettering, 286 pages, $8.50.

This valuable work shows the transformation of family names in dictionary form. About 8,000 surnames are alphabetically arranged with such information as nationality, origin or etymology and references to sources such as the "Domesday Book," "Roll of Battell Abbey", etc. Most other reference works on surnames are lacking in locality information. The work is prefaced by an essay on British surnames and lists of ancient appelations, Old Norse personal names, Frisian personal and family names, names of persons entered in "Domesday Book" as holding lands, names of Tenants in Chief in "Domesday Book" and names of under-tenants of Lands at the time of the Domesday Survey, and also Norman names from the "Roll of Battell Abbey."
